

The VAASL Conference Experience

Educators and librarians from around the commonwealth gather for three days to learn as a professional community about best practices in libraries. Our Virginia libraries are a fusion of many domains which coalesce into interdisciplinary learning experiences. Libraries are not merely repositories for books, but are the heartbeat of literacy and inquiry in our schools.

Conference Highlights

- ✿ Keynote speakers with national acclaim including Gina Seymour, a School Library Journal Mover and Shaker, 2017 and author of Makers with a Cause; Dr. Chris Harris, author of the Teaching Through Games series; and John Schumacher, Ambassador for School Libraries, Scholastic Inc.
- ✿ Authors Candace Fleming, Giant Squid; Rafael Lopez, Maybe Something Beautiful, How Art Transformed a Neighborhood; Sandhya Menon, When Dimple Met Rishi; and Allan Wolf, Who Killed Christopher Goodman?
- ✿ Ten Concurrent Session opportunities with over 100 sessions available
- ✿ Access to exhibitors and representatives showcasing the newest trends in library technology and design

Conference Pricing at Member Rates

	Early Bird Ends 9/25	Advanced Ends 10/23	On-Site
Full Conference, Member	$160	$190	$225
Full Conference with Lunch Bundle, Member	$210	$240	Unavailable
One-Day (Thurs. or Fri.), Member	$105	$135	$170
One-Day (Thurs. or Fri.) with Lunch, Member	$130	$160	Unavailable
Register a Classroom Teacher (Use group registration link.)	$100 with registration of librarian colleague. An additional $50 includes the Lunch Bundle.

Hotel Accommodations

The Hotel Roanoke and the Hampton Inn & Suites Roanoke Downtown have room blocks available (until filled).

Hotel Roanoke Single/Double Occupancy: $152 Triple: $170

Hampton Inn Single/Double Occupancy: $152 Triple: $162